

Knightbeat Western Union 45 to 32

TAKE INITIAL HOME GAME IN IOWA LEAGUE Knights Upset Dope For Second Conf. Victory.

By Leonard Rulten St. Paul Daily News

The Wartburg Knights embarked on a very auspicious start of their home conference schedule on Saturday, Jan. 16, by decisively routing the Western Union five of 45 to 32, to the tune of 45 to 32.

After the opening tip-off, on which the Wartburg cagers were again quickly unseated, Caskey to connect for a short and they quickly rallied to lead the lead and reverse the pre-game lead by the Knights to the victory to the Western Union aggression.

Knights Get Lead.

Caskey's opening bucket was followed by a free throw. Luetkens three netting efforts to tie the score. Then followed a pair of free shots by Dean of the Westerners only to have Luetkens come through with a free shot into the bucket to give the Knights their first lead.

Dean retaliated with another basket, but Luetkens, Kappewyer and Harden once through on scoring efforts to give Wartburg the new lead.

Conferences, all to 1 lead, which was held by the Knights through the efforts of Harden and Opperman to lead at half time by the score of 23 to 18.

In the second half the Wartburg Knights continued the scoring pace which they set for their victory in the first half to pile up a total of 45 points while holding the Western Union five to 32 points.

DENVER BEATS RINKYDINKS

Drop Thrilling Contest 34-33 After Two Overtime Periods.

In a game packed with thrills and close scoring the Denver Rinkies won out in a two overtime periods over the Rinkies. The game was a 34 to 33 in a preliminary contest to the 1937-38 season.

The Rinkies showed in this game that they are slowly developing into form, and from now on should be a high scoring team.

The first half of the game was somewhat slow and rough. Denver gained a slight lead in the beginning of the contest and half time found them leading by the margin of 14-11.

KNIGHTS WILL PLAY 2 GAMES

Meet Ellsworth Here Tonight; Upper Iowa Ten Days Later.

The shifted lineup which proved so satisfactory in Wartburg's defeat of Western Union last week will probably be used again tonight when the Knights take on Ellsworth in a return game. The Knights will try to get a victory in their last pre-Christmas game.

Following this contest the Knights will rest ten days before they play a return match with the Rinkies. The game will be played in Upper Iowa ten days later.

UPPER IOWA.

It was expected that Norman Becker will be in charge of the game. The game will be played in Upper Iowa ten days later.
